

Key Vocabulary		Key Knowledge
Ummah	the worldwide community of Muslims	What is a sacred place?	Special places for those with a faith are considered to be sacred places, places for worship.
Zakat	the pillar of charitable giving and wealth and poverty	How do mosque buildings express Islamic beliefs and values?	In Islamic art and architecture there are no images of Allah and for many Muslims no image of humans because they mislead rather than enlighten us. Over the last 125 years, more and more mosques have opened: there are about 1750 as of 2016.  How are Mosques beautiful?
Sacred	connected with God or a god	How do Muslims use art in worship?	Muslims make beautiful writing, but no pictures of Allah.  99 beautiful names - tell us about Allah.  These are used to create artwork in the forms of calligraphy and poetry.
Architecture	The art or practice of designing and constructing buildings.	How do Christians use art in worship?	Holy artwork gives us information and tells us stories about Jesus' life. Stained glass windows are a key aspect of places of worship as they illustrate key parts of Jesus' life.
Calligraphy	Decorative handwriting or handwritten lettering.	How and why do Muslim charities try to change the world?	Islamic Relief/Muslim Aid - two of the biggest Muslim charities in the UK. The UK's Muslim Charity Forum links Muslim charities in Britain, which between them have a voluntary income of over £150 000 000.
Charity	The voluntary giving of help, typically in the form of money, to those in need.	How and why does Christian Aid try to change the world?	Christian Aid project 'Swords into Ploughshares' with the Christian Council of Mozambique, where prayer, worship and scripture led to peace making.
Generosity	Showing a readiness to give more of something, especially money, than is strictly necessary or expected.		